A UNIQUE AFRICAN LOVE STORY

It all started in Africa, the place where Sagiv an Israeli met and fell in love with Bianca, a Namibian who was born and raised on a beautiful farm on the plains of the African Savanna. Fast forward, the couple now lives in Israel with their 3 awesome kids, strongly believing, that we travel not to escape life; but for life not to escape us.

As a way for their family to stay connected to Africa, they started Visit Namibia, merging their love for both countries together, so more Israelis can discover the endless landscapes and natural beauty of Bianca's home country.
